Course Descriptions

Year 1

NT Survey

This course conducts an overview of the Bible from Matthew to Revelation. Pertinent background and introductory material is covered. The theme and main teaching of each book are considered. The particular contribution of each book to the Canon is noted. Time permitting, difficult or vital passages of each book are explained.

Acts

This seminar is an in-depth look at the book of Acts. It will cover the expansion and explosion of the first church in Jerusalem. The birthing of other churches and the effect of the gospel message as it travels the realm of Asia into Europe will be seen clearly as well as the significance of Acts to the rest of the New Testament.

Doctrines 1

This course will thoroughly cover Bibliology – the study of the Bible as well as Theology Proper – the study of God.

Church History

This course is designed to provide the student with an overview of the major events in the life of the church. A primary method in the course will be the study of individuals who made major contributions to the life of the church over the centuries.

John

This course is a thorough investigation of the fourth Gospel, highlighting the person and work of Jesus Christ, God's own Son. Differences between John and the other four Gospels will be considered.

OT Book

This course will cover an Old Testament book verse by verse. The book will vary by year.

OT Survey

This course conducts an overview of the Bible from Genesis to Malachi. Pertinent background and introductory material is covered. The theme and main teaching of each book are considered. The particular contribution of each book to the Canon is noted. Time permitting, difficult or vital passages of each book are explained.

Personal Evangelism

"Personal Evangelism" is a course explaining how Jesus has given His children the command to go with the gospel. The work of soul-winning is a great responsibility. It is more than just an elective in the school of Christ. It is a requirement. This class will look at the who, why, when, where, and how with scriptural reasons. Luke 19:10 "For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which is lost."

Doctrines 2

This course will cover Christology – the study of Christ, Pneumatology – the study of the Holy Spirit, as well as Angelology – the study of angels.

Prophecy

This seminar will show God's plan for the ages through a study of Biblical prophecy. It is designed to introduce the students to a general scope of end time events. This seminar will approach the study of prophecy both literally and dispensationally.

Life of Christ

This course is an in-depth look at the harmonizing of the Gospels. It looks at the major chronological periods in the life of our Lord. The Lord's life and teachings will be examined with special emphasis on the crucifixion week.

NT Book

This course will cover a New Testament book verse by verse. The book will vary by year.

Electives

Each semester will have three electives on various topics on topics such as Leadership, Modern Cults, Trusting God, Youth Ministry, Public Speaking, Hermeneutics, and many more. These classes will vary from year to year.

Year 2

Baptist Heritage

This course is a survey of the historical and theological basis of Baptist thought and practice. The course studies the background of Baptists in so-called heretical and radical movements, the emergence of Baptists in the seventeenth century, and significant Baptist figures and movements in Britain, America, and across the world.

Personal Evangelism

"Personal Evangelism" is a course explaining how Jesus has given His children the command to go with the gospel. The work of soul-winning is a great responsibility. It is more than just an elective in the school of Christ. It is a requirement. This class will look at the who, why, when, where, and how with scriptural reasons. Luke 19:10 "For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which is lost."

Doctrines 3

This course will cover Hamartiology – the study of sin, Anthropology – the study of man, and Soteriology – the study of salvation.

Church History

This course is designed to provide the student with an overview of the major events in the life of the church. A primary method in the course will be the study of individuals who made major contributions to the life of the church over the centuries.

Pauline Epistles

The purpose of this course is to become better equipped to read the apostle Paul's letters as Christian Scripture. This course will focus on many themes and various historical and theological particularities along the way as we "read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest" Paul's letters, but the overarching aim is to learn to engage with Paul as a prime apostolic witness of Jesus Christ and thereby deepen our grasp of the gospel.

OT Book

This course will cover an Old Testament book verse by verse. The book will vary by year.

Dispensationalism

Dispensationalism is a system designed to help interpret God's Work accurately and consistently. This seminar will introduce the main dispensations found in Scripture and help students understand God's Word more clearly.

Proverbs

This seminar will explain the book of Proverbs in two ways: themes and verse-by-verse. Proverbs is given to Christians so that we might have wisdom, and this class will teach the "knowledge of God" and give a biblical philosophy of life.

Doctrines 4

This course will cover Ecclesiology – the study of the church and Eschatology – the study of End Times.

End Times

This course is a study of Old and New Testament teachings on eschatology, including those aspects of the Kingdom of God which are already present and those yet to be fulfilled. Specific attention will be given to concepts such as Messiah, resurrection, tribulation, millennium, judgment, signs of the time, and the Kingdom of God.

General Epistles

The non-Pauline letters of the New Testament provide us with valuable insights into the various ways early Christians embraced Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord, especially with regard to perspectives within Christianity. The purpose of this course is to acquaint the student with the early church.

NT Book

This course will cover a New Testament book verse by verse. The book will vary by year.

Electives

Each semester will have three electives on various topics on topics such as Leadership, Modern Cults, Trusting God, Youth Ministry, Public Speaking, Hermeneutics, and many more. These classes will vary from year to year.
